With the help of well-wishers and local supporters a free computer education centre has been initiated and started at Society for the Development of the Depressed (SDD) office for rural poor students and unemployed youth to get basic computer education and training.

The inaugural ceremony held on 2nd January 2009, Friday at 3.30 PM at SDD office, Chetpet. Mr. M. Manavalan, President, SDD presided over the function.

Miss. Siva Sakthi, the instructor of Computer Centre welcomed the gathering. After a brief introduction, the purpose of the free computer education and training, Mr. Siva Sankaran, Branch Manager, Pallavan Bank, Chetpet, clicked on the First Batch training session with the lighting the lamp.

There are 10 students and 5 unemployed youth were attend the function and enrolled their names for training. A separate register is being maintained to enrolled students. Basic syllabus on computer education has been teaching now and a time table has been designed to teach the computer education in subject wise.

It has been suggested to write a letter to the near by schools to inform about the training and to mobilize a good number of students to get computer education at free of cost. The computer will function in all working days (except Government Holidays) daily from 10.00 AM to 7.00 PM.

Those who are interested in this kind of training programme kindly send their comments and suggestions to run the computer centre effectively and an appropriate manner.
